

Application for Admission—Yeshivat Chovevei Torah Rabbinical School

Preliminary Discussions

All prospective students are required to have a preliminary discussion with the Director of Recruitment. This should be scheduled as early as possible in the application process.

Visit to YCT

All candidates are required to spend a few days at the yeshiva while it is in session. Please contact Ruthie Simon at rsimon@yct Torah.org to arrange a visit.

Application Instructions

All application materials must be mailed together to the Office of Admissions
YCT Rabbinical School
3700 Henry Hudson Parkway—Second Floor
Riverdale, New York 10463

Application Fee

Include a non-refundable check in the amount of $50 payable to YCT. This fee is waived if your completed application is received by January 1.

Letters of Recommendation

Please submit three sealed letters of recommendation (with one accompanying reference form for each letter), which include at least one academic and one rabbinic reference.

Official Transcripts

Official transcripts must be included with the application. Applicants who are currently enrolled in degree programs must include mid-year transcripts and arrange for final transcripts to be mailed to YCT upon completion of the semester.

GRE Scores

The GRE is required for those whose GPA is less than a 3.0 and is highly recommended for all applicants. Scores must be included with your application.

Interviews/Bechinot

Those candidates invited for an interview will be notified by February 15.

In preparation for discussions during the interview, applicants are required to read the article entitled Halakhah and Morality in Modern Warfare (Meorot 6:1), which can be found on the YCT website. Applicants must also prepare a 3-5 minute d'var Torah on the topic of their choice to be shared during their interview. A learning assessment will be administered by one of the rebbeim at the Yeshiva around the time of the interview. Candidates may also be asked to meet with a mental health professional as part of the admissions process.

Financing

YCT highly recommends that applicants apply for the Wexner Foundation Graduate Fellowship. For more information call 614-939-6060 or visit www.wexnerfoundation.org.

The yeshiva offers qualified students tuition remission and a generous monthly living stipend.

Policies

YCT Rabbinical School admits students of any race, color, national origin, or ethnic origin. All documents submitted in support of an application for admission become the permanent possession of YCT and cannot be returned to the applicant. For your records, please make photocopies of all materials submitted, except for transcripts and recommendation forms, which must be received unopened, in the original, sealed envelopes.

Important Dates

- January 1 Application fee is waived for complete applications received by this date.
- January 27 Final date to postmark and mail applications.
- April 1 Applicants will receive responses.

Essay Questions

Please share your reflections in no more than three pages.

In what ways are you a Ben Torah?

How does your Yir'at Shamayim inform your religious practices and ethos?

Describe/explore your relationship with Orthodoxy.

Personal Statements

The purpose of the personal statement is to provide the reader with a sense of who you are.

Your response should be no more than three pages.

1. Describe the development of your interest in the rabbinate, with special emphasis on the important experiences that shaped your passion (i.e., Jewish experiences, family influences, role models, ideas, etc.). What kind of rabbi do you want to be? What are your professional goals? What is your vision for the Jewish community and how do you see yourself actualizing this vision as a rabbi?
2. Why is YCT the right rabbinical school for you? What do you think will be challenging for you? What will you contribute to the YCT community? Evaluate your potential strengths and weaknesses as a rabbinical student and rabbi.

Letters of Recommendation

Letters of recommendation must be submitted with your application in a separate envelope with the signature of the person writing the recommendation across the sealed flap. Please copy this form for additional references.

B. To be completed by reference:

Your candid remarks on this student will be of great help to the rabbinical school admissions committee. On a separate sheet, please provide your overall evaluation of the applicant and include the following information to the best of your knowledge:

- (1) The length of time and in what capacity you have known the applicant
- (2) The applicant's character, talents, abilities, work ethic, and academic ability
- (3) The applicant's vocational choice in relation to his personality, Jewish learning ability, religious commitment, and leadership potential

Please be specific in your assessment of the candidate's past performance and potential. If the applicant has signed the second statement above or has not signed either statement, your letter may be available for the applicant's examination upon his enrollment in the rabbinical school.

Please provide the information requested below and attach your letter to this form. Please sign and date your letter and place it in a sealed envelope. Please sign your name across the back of the envelope before returning it to the applicant.
