Yeshivat Chovevei Torah Rabbinical School is proud to announce the online publication of Meorot- A Forum of Modern Orthodox Discourse. Formerly known as The Edah Journal, the journal has become one of the most widely-read and influential publications in the Jewish world, attracting more than 10,000 online readers per month from the Orthodox and academic communities.

In the last seven years, the journal has published ground-breaking analyses of the role of women in Orthodox life, Judaism's attitudes toward "the other," Jewish education, the possibilities for holiness in modern life, and the interface of halakhah and modern values.
